2. It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner had allegedly subjected the defacto complainant to forcible sexual assault. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner has been in custody since 26.05.2026 and is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent, while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and, on instructions, furnished the statement of the defacto complainant recorded under Section 183 of BNSS. He further submitted that the investigation has already been completed.

5. Though there is a serious allegation levelled against the petitioner, a harmonious reading of the statement recorded under Section 183 of BNSS would reveal that the alleged first incident of physical relationship had taken place on 09.05.2026, whereas the FIR came to be registered only on 26.05.2026. Apart from that, despite the allegation of forcible sexual assault, it appears that the petitioner and the defacto complainant had continued to be in a physical relationship even thereafter.

6. Hence, considering the totality of the circumstances, the delay in registration of the FIR, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and also the fact that the investigation has already been completed, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Tiruppur, and subject to the following conditions:
