2. It is the case of the prosecution that, due to previous enmity, the petitioner, along with the other accused, attacked the defacto complainant with a spade on his head, causing grievous injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail, which fact was not seriously disputed by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side). Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent, while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and, on instructions, submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and that a major portion of the investigation has already been completed. He further submitted that the final report has been filed and the case has been taken on file in S.C.No.181 of 2025 on the file of the Principal District and Sessions Judge, Nagapattinam.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, that a major portion of the investigation has already been completed, the fact that the final report has been filed and the case has been taken on file, and also the fact that the co-accused have already been enlarged on bail, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail with certain conditions.
