..Petitioner(s)

Vs

The State represented by:

The Inspector of Police
P6, Kodungaiyur Police Station,
Chennai.
[Crime No.363 of 2026]

..Respondent(s)

PRAYER: This Criminal Original Petition has been filed under Section 483 of B.N.S.S. praying to enlarge the petitioner accused on bail in the event of arrest by the respondent police in Crime No.363 of 2026 pending investigation before the respondent and to pass such further orders.

For Petitioner(s): M/S. Durai Kannan

For Respondent(s): Mr. N. Palanivel
Government Advocate (Crl.Side)

ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of B.N.S. in Crime No.363 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.06.2026, at about 9 p.m., due to a wordy quarrel between the defacto complainant and the accused persons, they assaulted the defacto complainant using deadly weapons and committed criminally intimidation. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that according to the prosecution, due to the dispute between the parties, the accused assaulted the defacto complainant using deadly weapons, in fact, the petitioner was only injured, due to the attack committed by the defacto complainant and this petitioner is ready and willing to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the anticipatory bail petition, fairly submitted that there was no serious injury to anyone.

5. From the submissions made by the learned Government Advocate, it is seen that there was an altercation between the classmates and in furtherance thereof, an assault was made against the defacto complainant. However, there was no serious injury to anyone. In such view of circumstances, taking into consideration of the fact that the occurrence was taken place on 07.06.2026,, this Court is of the firm view that at this length of time, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required and hence, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned X Metropolitan Magistrate, Egmore, Chennai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:

(a) If the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;

(b) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the application for surety ship (Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of identify proofs to ensure their identity;

(c) The petitioner shall sign before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders.

(d) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate actions against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji v. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560];

(e) If the petitioner thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS Act.
