ORDER

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of B.N.S. in Crime No.0201 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the occurrence took place on 29.04.2026 and there are about three accused. The second petitioner is the wife of first petitioner and the 3rd petitioner is the relative. The de facto complainant is none other than sister of the first petitioner. Due to previous enmity on 29.04.2026, there was a wordy quarrel which escalated into assault thereby de facto complainant sustained injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the defacto complainant and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that they are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and ready to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured person has been discharged from hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, taking note of the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides, taking into consideration of the fact that the occurrence took place on 29.04.2026 and the de facto complainant is none other than sister of the first petitioner and upon the fact that injured has ben discharged from hospital and upon the further fact that second petitioner being a women, this Court is of the firm view that at this length of time, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.
