2. It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner, who is the maternal uncle of the victim girl aged 8 years, had subjected her to inappropriate sexual touching. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there was a property dispute between the petitioner and his sister and that, in furtherance thereof, the present false case has been foisted against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (CrI. Side) appearing for the respondent police, while opposing the grant of bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and, on instructions, submitted that a major portion of the investigation has already been completed. He also furnished the statement of the victim girl recorded under Section 183 of BNSS.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and the fact that a major portion of the investigation has already been completed, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail, subject to certain conditions.
