2. The case of the prosecution is that during the Pongal festival, a wordy quarrel allegedly arose between him and the defacto complainant. It is alleged that the petitioner threatened and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and they are willing to cooperate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. From the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side, it is seen that the entire issue arose out of a wordy quarrel between the neighbours on 17.01.2026. Considering the fact that the occurrence took place on 17.01.2026, at this length of time, custodial interrogation is not required.

Hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain following conditions.
