ORDER

The plaintiff has applied for permission to file additional documents. In the affidavit in support thereof, it is stated that the authorization letter was in the Managing Director's personal locker and he returned from the United States of America recently. It is also stated that some of the documents, such as the defendants' statement of accounts and acknowledgment letter were listed in the written statement but the plaintiff apprehends that the defendants may not file the same.

2. Learned counsel for the defendants opposes this application on the ground that the requirements of Order XI Rule 5 of the Code of Civil Procedure as applicable to commercial suits are not satisfied.

3. The suit is at the stage of commencement of the examination in chief of the plaintiff. The reasons set out in the affidavit in support of this application are not entirely satisfying. The application has been filed in March, 2025 in spite of the suit being filed in 2017. Considering all the facts and circumstances, subject to payment of a sum of Rs.15,000/- as costs by the plaintiff to the
