ORDER

This petition has been filed to quash the proceedings in CC.No.2254 of 2024 pending on the file of the learned XVIII Metropolitan Magistrate, Saidapet, Chennai District as against the petitioner /second accused, thereby taken cognizance for the offences under Section 500 of IPC.

2.The case of the respondent/complainant is that the first accused is the film producer and the petitioner/second accused is the advocate for the film actress Parvathi Nair. The complainant was employed as an Office-In-Charge in the first accused's company from 17.06.2020 to 26.10.2022. During the said period, the actress visited the first accused's company, and the first accused introduced the complainant to the actress for the purpose of photographing and video-graphing her and editing the same. In July 2020, the first accused instructed the complainant to stay at the actress's residence during weekends. However, the complainant felt uncomfortable with the actress and attempted to leave her residence. While so, the actress lodged a complaint against the respondent herein and four others before the Nungambakkam Police Station, falsely alleging that they had stolen her belongings. Based on the said complaint, an FIR was registered in Crime No.304 of 2020. While the investigation was pending, the actress gave an interview to the Behindwoods O2 You Tube channel regarding the alleged theft of her belongings, which was also published on 21.10.2022. Thereafter, the first accused and the said actress threatened the complainant, pursuant to which the complainant also lodged a complaint on 26.10.2022 before the Inspector of Police, Nungambakkam Police Station, which is pending enquiry. Subsequently, the first accused, the said actress and others allegedly confined the complainant in the first accused's office, assaulted and abused him, and made remarks concerning his caste. Hence, the complainant lodged a complaint them before the Teynampet Police Station. Once again, the actress gave an interview on the Behindwoods TV You Tube channel, wherein she mentioned the complainant's name and made insulting remarks against his conduct and character. The first accused allegedly abetted the petitioner/second accused to make false statements during the interview. Hence the respondent lodged the present private complaint against the first accused and the second accused, namely, the petitioner herein for the offence punishable under Section 500 of IPC.

3.Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

4.On a perusal of the records, it is revealed that the petitioner is arrayed as the second accused. He is an advocate and legal advisor, who assisted the said actress.

5.The learned counsel appearing for the respondent/complainant submits that he has no objection to quashing the private complaint as against the second accused, namely, the petitioner herein, is concerned.

6.Accordingly, the proceedings in CC.No.2254 of 2024 pending on the file of the learned XVIII Metropolitan Magistrate, Chennai, is hereby quashed insofar as the petitioner/second accused alone and this Criminal Original Petition stands allowed. The trial Court is directed to proceed with the trial as against the first accused in accordance with law. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
