taking on file the additional documents opposing the request of the additional documents which are self serving documents and there is no proper explanation as to why these documents have not been brought on record earlier.

3. However, I have gone through the affidavit filed in support of the application and I am satisfied that the petitioner has made out sufficient cause for non-production of the documents earlier and warranting leave to be granted to take on record the additional documents.

4. In view of the above (TM) A No.34 of 2026 is allowed.

5. Ms.Shruthi Srinivasan, learned counsel for the applicant also brought to my notice that the signatory, who was authorised to represent the applicant is retiring shortly and necessary Board Resolution has been passed appointing a new authorised signatory to prosecute the matter before this Court.

6. Permission is granted to the applicant to move appropriate application in due course.
