ORDER

It can be seen that this is a case, where the judgment debtor is adopting a high-handed attitude so as to hoodwink the decree holder and also taking the Court proceedings in a manner so as to frustrate things. It is stated that after passing of the order to deposit the amount from the music concert, the concert was cancelled. It is further stated that the respondent is now incorporating a new company and operates.

2. Considering all the above and in spite of service of notice in these applications, the judgment debtor not appearing before this court, the prayers made in application Nos.4003 to 4005 of 2026 stand ordered.

3. In spite of some of the reliefs being granted, the respondent has neither chosen to comply with the same nor to represent before this court.

4. From the affidavit of assets filed by the judgment debtor on 05.01.2026 in A.No.5375 of 2025 in Form -16 A, it can be seen that the judgement debtor has means to pay. The affidavits filed in support of the application categorically adumbrated that the judgement debtor has means to pay and still not coming forward to pay, therefore these documents on the affidavit substantially form the evidence that the judgment debtor has means and he is not paying in spite of having means. A huge sum of Rs.8,21,47,856/- is due as on date.

5. In view thereof, the prayer made in E.P.No.24 of 2026 also stands allowed and the Registry shall issue a warrant of arrest to the judgement debtor
