2. It is stated that the impugned order was issued on the premise that petitioner does not fall within the purview of G.O.Ms.No.55 issued by the Rural Department and Panchayat Department dated 15.06.2006. It is stated that the above G.O. came to be issued while dealing with the request for appointment of -persons working in Panchayat Union and engaged as Fitter Helpers/hand pump maintenance works, continuously for decades under grade pay and permanent job. The above G.O. provides that persons working as Fitter Helpers appointed from 1981 to 01.04.1987, based on eligibility were to be appointed in the vacant post of Night Watchman or Office Assistant Post in Panchayat Union subject to the conditions set out therein. The relevant portions of the Government Order is extracted hereunder:

3. Learned counsel for respondent would submit on the basis of the above Government Order that it is only meant for those persons appointed between 1982 to 01.04.1997, the request of the petitioner for regularisation was rejected. Learned counsel for petitioner would submit that G.O.Ms.No.55 dated 15.06.2006 had been considered by a Division Bench of this Court and it was held that though the above G.O. only extends the benefits of regularisation of service for those Fitter Helpers appointed from 1982 to 01.04.1997, however, even in cases where the employment is subsequent, it provides for regularisation of services of the temporary / daily rated employees, if it is shown that the nature of work was permanent and they had served for more than 10 years. The relevant portions of the order is extracted hereunder:

“21. The Hon’ble Supreme Court even after the judgment in Umadevi had held that in appropriate cases, it will be open to regularise the services of temporary daily rated employees, if it is shown that the nature of work done by them was permanent and they were served for more than 10 years. This Court has also issued several directions in this regard.”

4. It is further submitted by the learned counsel for petitioner that the nature of work done by petitioner was permanent and the petitioner has been working for the Panchayat Union for close to 24 years.
