For Petitioner(s): Mr. Balakrishnan R

For Respondent(s): Mr. R. Rajasekaran,
Government Advocate (Crl. Side)

ORDER

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 303(2), 326 BNS read with Section 21(1) of Mines and Minerals Act in Crime No. 86 of 2026 the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioners is that the petitioners have illegally transported 5 units of lake soil in a lorry without obtaining permission from the competent authorities. Hence, the present petition for anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. The learned counsel for the petitioners voluntarily submitted that the petitioners undertake to pay a sum of Rs.50,000/- jointly as non-refundable deposit to any of the welfare scheme without prejudice to their defence.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, submitted that the petitioners had illegally transported 5 nits of lake soil in a lorry. Hence he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. From the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and the learned counsel for the petitioners, though, this Court views the offence of theft of natural resources and its exploitation as serious offence, and upon the fond hope that he would mend themselves in future and would not come under the adverse notice of the respondent, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Tiruvannamalai on condition that each of the petitioners of G.O.Ms.No.84, Natural Resources (MMD.1) Department, dated 16.12.2025;

(e) The petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 am for a period of four weeks and there after as and when required for interrogation;

(f) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate actions against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji v. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560];

(g) If the petitioners thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS Act.
