ORDER

The Revision challenges the order passed by the first respondent in which the first respondent after recording the dispute between A party and B party, namely, the first petitioner and the third respondent herein with regard to management of a Temple trust, directed a Steering Committee to be in-charge of the temple trust according to the will of the founder trustee.

2.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the execution of the will is in dispute and by the impugned order, the first respondent had decided the validity of the will and as to who should administer the temple, which is not in accordance with law.

3.The learned counsel for the third respondent would submit that the founder trustee had executed the will, which cannot be disputed.

4. In view of the rival submissions this Court is of the view that the dispute with regard to the validity of the will cannot be adjudicated in this Revision and ought not to have been adjudicated by the first respondent. Hence, this Court suggested to the learned counsels on either side that an independent person can be appointed to administer the temple until the rights of the parties are adjudicated by a competent Civil Court.

5. The learned counsels on either side agreed to the said proposal and suggested the names of Dr.A.Somasundaram (Advocate, 41, Law Chamber, District Court Buildings, Madurai – 625 020) and the fourth respondent herein one Mr.T.Senthil Kumar, who was impleaded subsequently pursuant to the orders of this Court.

6. In view of the same, the impugned order is set aside. Dr.A.Somasundaram and Mr.T.Senthil Kumar, the fourth respondent are hereby directed to be in-charge of the temple trust, until there is any order of the competent civil Court determining the rights of the parties. It is open to the above two persons to consult any person for the said purpose, including the members of the Steering Committee.
