ORDER

When the matter was taken up for hearing today, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the first respondent submitted that the petitioners have trespassed into the house of the de facto complainant, abused her and also intimidated her, besides causing damage to the window and compound wall of the de facto complainant's house and there are witnesses to speak about the incident. After conducting due investigation, the first respondent police has filed the final report.

2. At this juncture, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners sought permission of this Court to withdraw the present petition and also made an endorsement to that effect. He further prayed for the indulgence of this Court, to dispense with the personal appearance of the petitioners before the trial Court.

3. In view of the submission and endorsement made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed as withdrawn. However, on filing necessary petition before the trial Court the personal appearance of the petitioners before the trial Court may be dispensed with, except for receipt of copies, answering the charges,
