Crl.OP.No.30357 of 2026

N.RAMESH, J.

The matter has been listed today under the caption “for being mentioned”.

2. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that this Court, by an order dated 29.10.2026, had granted bail to the petitioner. However, in the copy of the order, the arrest date of the petitioner and the Sections have been wrongly mentioned. Hence, he prayed for suitable directions.

3. In view of the above, the arrest date of the petitioner and Sections shall be corrected as follows:

“The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 23.08.2026 for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 140(3), 143, 144, 316, 318(2), and 318(4) of BNS, 2023, read with Sections 10 and 24 of the Emigration Act, 1983, and Section 66-D of the Information Technology (Amendment) Act, 2008.” All other conditions imposed on the petitioner shall remain intact, except for the above said correction.

4. Registry is directed to carry out the above corrections and issue fresh order copy.

complainant's son met an agent to secure an employment opportunity in Myanmar, and on the basis of such representations, he traveled to Myanmar on 16.08.2026. The de facto complainant's son subsequently contacted his father through a WhatsApp call and message, informing him that he had lost his mobile phone and that his employer in Myanmar had detained him, demanding a sum of Rs. 6 Lakhs to be paid for his release. Since such a large amount could not be transferred through G-Pay or any other online mode, the son himself provided the information and requested the de facto complainant to contact the petitioner, who was located in Trichy. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further undertakes that the petitioner will strictly abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court and will co-operate with the investigation. He also submit that defacto complainant was not paid and it is stated that the defacto complainant has already returned to India with the help of embassy

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent state strongly opposes the grant of bail to the petitioner and submitted that the investigation is pending.

5. Considering the fact that the defacto complainant was not paid and it is
