of 2026 before this Honourable High Court, Chennai order dated 10.06.2026 in Crime no.176 of 2025 on the file of the 3rd Respondent Police by appreciating the above stated facts and circumstances and pass such order as this Honourable Court may deems fit.

For Petitioner(s): M.Karthik

For Respondent(s): Mr. R. Rajasekaran, Government Advocate For R3

ORDER

The present petition has been filed by the de facto complainant seeking cancellation of the anticipatory bail already granted to the accused/respondents No. 1 and 2.

2. The ground raised in the petition is that, after obtaining the anticipatory bail order, respondents No. 1 and 2 abused the de facto complainant and his wife in filthy language on 25.09.2026. In this regard, the de facto complainant lodged a separate complaint, and C.S.R. No. 558 of 2026 was registered. Based on the said subsequent conduct, the present petition has been filed.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), appearing for the respondent Police, submitted that the parties are brothers who run shops situated opposite to each other, and that there are cases and counter-cases pending between them. It is further submitted that the accused/respondents have already vacated their shop due to the ongoing dispute.

4. It is observed that the petitioner and respondents No. 1 and 2 are biological brothers and there are ongoing cases and counter-cases between them. Considering the relationship between the parties and the nature of the dispute, anticipatory bail was originally granted to respondents No. 1 and 2 by an order dated 10.06.2026 passed in Crl.O.P. No. 14543 of 2026.

5. Considering the close relationship between the parties and the nature of the fresh allegations made, this Court is not inclined to cancel the anticipatory bail already granted. However, if any threat is made to the de facto complainant or his family members in connection with the pending dispute, the petitioner is at liberty to move the appropriate forum or initiate separate legal proceedings in accordance with law.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition stands dismissed.
