2. The case of the proseuction, in brief, is that on the date of occurrence, the petitioner, along with the other accused, waylaid the de-facto complainant and demanded money. When the de-facto complainant questioned the same, the accused allegedly abused him in filthy language, attempted to attack him with a knife, assaulted him, caught hold of him and robbed him of a sum of Rs.600/- at knife point. They further threatened him with dire consequences and fled from the scene of occurrence. Hence, the case.
