2. The case of the prosecution is that, while the de-facto complainant was standing at a bus stop, two unknown persons allegedly intercepted and assaulted him with a wooden log and a beer bottle and robbed him of two mobile phones and a sum of Rs.500/-. Based on the complaint lodged by the de-facto complainant, the respondent police registered a case against the petitioner on 30.06.2026.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has not committed any offence as alleged by the defacto complainant and that he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and is also ready to cooperate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) opposed the grant of anticipatory bail and submitted that tthe present case involves serious allegations of robbery and assault, wherein the accused allegedly attacked the de-facto complainant with a wooden log and a beer bottle and robbed him of two mobile phones and Rs.500/-. Hence, he sought dismissal of the anticipatory bail petition.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and have also perused the records available on record.

6. Considering the nature and gravity of the allegations, particularly the alleged assault on the de-facto complainant with a wooden log and a beer bottle and the commission of robbery, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner at this stage.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
