2. Heard learned counsel on either side and carefully perused the materials available on record.

3. The petitioners are plaintiffs, who filed the suit seeking for the relief of partition and for allotment of shares. The suit papers were returned by raising certain clarifications and the same was represented by clarifying whatever queries were raised by the Court. In spite of the same, papers have once again been returned and aggrieved by the same, the present revision has been filed.

4. In the considered view of this Court, the Court below ought to have followed the procedure prescribed by this Court in the judgment in Selvaraj v. Koodankulam Nuclear Power Plant India Limited [2021 (3) LW 677], which was subsequently followed in The Government of Tamil Nadu v. Ponnusamy [2026 (2) MLJ 52].

5. In view of the above, the petitioner/plaintiffs are permitted to again represent the plaint and the Court below shall deal with the same in line with the aforesaid judgments and proceed further in accordance with law.

6. This civil revision petition is disposed of in the above terms. No costs.
