2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were involved in illegal transportation of M-sand without any valid permit. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. He further submitted that co-accused had been granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner in Crl.O.P.No.27318 of 2026. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account the submissions made by both sides and the fact that investigation has almost been completed and also the fact that the co-accused had been granted anticipatory bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
