The respondent/husband has filed H.M.O.P.No.926 of 2025 seeking divorce. The case is stated to be in counter stage. The petitioner states that she is residing atAvadi, Chennai, along with the minor child, and she is also maintaining her physically disabled father. 4. Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, there is no representation for the respondent.

5. In transfer petitions relating to matrimonial proceedings, the Court must balance convenience and hardship. When the wife is residing away from the place where the proceeding is instituted and she has the responsibility of a minor child and dependent/ailing parent, compelling her to undertake long-distance travel for each hearing would cause undue hardship. On the otherhand, no serious or irreparable prejudice is shown to be caused to the respondent if the case is transferred.

6. Considering the submissions, this Court is of the view that the transfer sought deserves to be ordered.

7. Accordingly, Tr.C.M.P. No.1161 of 2025 is allowed. H.M.O.P. No.926 of 2025 on the file of the Family Court, Coimbatore, is withdrawn and transferred to
