ORDER

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 326, 303(2) of BNS Act in Crime No. 490 of 2026 the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioners is that the petitioners have illegally transported 1 unit of ordinay sand in a lorry without obtaining permission from the competent authorities. Hence, the present petition for anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. The learned counsel for the petitioners voluntarily submitted that the petitioners undertake to pay a sum of Rs.25,000/- jointly as non-refundable deposit to any of the welfare scheme without prejudice to their defence.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, submitted that the petitioners had illegally transported one unit of ordinary sand in a lorry. Hence he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. From the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and the learned counsel for the petitioners, though, this Court views the offence of theft of natural resources and its exploitation as serious offence, and upon the fond hope that he would mend themselves in future and would not come under the adverse notice of the respondent, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.III, Thirupathur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five Thousand only), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
