2. The case of the prosecution is that it is a dispute between husband and wife. They were separated and living separately. The allegation is that the wife, along with her male friends, trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, damaged the CCTV camera, snatched his mobile phone, obtained signatures on empty documents and undated cheques, and also forced him to send money through GPay. It is further alleged that they took his certificates and cash of Rs.1 lakh from the bureau and a further sum of Rs.1 lakh from the clinic and took the car key. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offences as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the co-accused A1 to A3 were arrested and released on bail and that the petitioner is not named in the FIR and is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police, reiterated the prosecution case and opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the nature of the allegation and the relationship between the parties, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-VI, Coimbatore, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:

(a) If the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned Magistrate within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;

(b) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the application for surety-ship (Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019]'. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of identify proofs to ensure their identity;

(c) The petitioner shall report before the respondent Police daily at 10:30 A.M., for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation;

(d) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the
