2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he has moved a petition before the learned Principal Sessions Court at Chennai in Crl.M.P.No.1536 of 2026 seeking to condone the delay of 812 days in filing the Criminal Revision Case before the trial Court.

3. The said petition was allowed by the learned Sessions Judge vide order dated 15.07.2026 subject to the condition that the petitioner shall remit a sum of Rs.2000/- to the District Court Mediation Centre, Chennai on or before 22.07.2026, failing compliance, the petition was ordered to be dismissed without any further reference to the court.

4. He further submitted that due to some financial constraint, the cost imposed by the trial court vide order dated 15.07.2026 directing to deposit Rs.2000/- before the Mediation Centre, Chennai could not be complied with by the petitioner in time. Thus, it was prayed by the learned counsel for the petitioner that some further time may be given to make compliance of the order dated.15.07.2026 to deposit Rs.2000/- before the District Court Mediation Centre, Chennai.

5. Considering the request made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and the limited prayer made in the present Criminal Revision Case, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose will be served in keeping the present Criminal Revision pending.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Revision Case is disposed of at the admission stage itself with a direction to the petitioner to deposit Rs.2000/- being the cost imposed by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Chennai in Crl.M.P.No.1536 of 2026 in Crl.R.Sr.No.2011 of 2026 before the District Mediation Centre at Chennai within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

7. On such compliance, the learned Principal Sessions Court at Chennai is directed to take the Criminal Revision on file and decide the same on its merits as expeditiously as possible after hearing all the necessary parties.
