2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in possession of knife and causing disturbance to the general public and blocking road. Hence, the case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case without any basis. It is submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 10.10.2026 and that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation. The learned counsel would further contend that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was found in possession of knife and causing disturbance to the general public and blocking road. He further submitted that there is no previous cases are pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides; nature of allegations; there is no previous case pending against the
