2. The case of the prosecution is that this matter relates to an overseas job racketing. The de facto complainant approached A1 seeking assistance in securing employment abroad. It is alleged that A1 received a total sum of Rs. 6,98,000/- from the de facto complainant on various dates from 05.12.2024 onwards, including bank transactions made via GPay. However, A1 neither secured an overseas job for the complainant nor refunded the money received. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is the wife of A1 and has been arrayed as A2. He further submitted that A1 has already been arrested and is in judicial custody in connection with this case. Contending that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), appearing for the respondent Police, strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail. He reiterated the prosecution's case and submitted that the investigation is still pending.
