ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.09.2026 for the alleged offences under Section 115(2), 118(1), 296(b), 329(3) and 351(3) of BNS R/w 75 of J.J.Act, 2015 in Crime No.251 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are neighbors. It is alleged that due to previous enmity, the petitioner along with accused abused and attacked the defacto complainant and his son and caused injuries to them. Hence, the case was registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case without any basis. It is submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 19.09.2026 and that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation. He further submits that the Court below has granted bail to some of the co-accused. The learned counsel would further contend that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner along with other accused assaulted the de-facto complainant and his son and caused caused injuries to them. He further submitted that there are two previous cases pending against the petitioner and injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature and gravity of the allegations, even though there are two previous cases pending against the petitioner, taking note of the fact that the injured were discharged from the hospital and the Trial Court has granted bail to some of the co-accused, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty-Five Thousand only), with two sureties for a like sum each to the satisfaction of the learned District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate, at Kurinjipadi subject to the following conditions:

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] on breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions had been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court itself, as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13 SCC 283];

[f] if the petitioner thereafter abscond, a fresh FIR may be registered under Section 269 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023.
