2. The prosecution of this case is that on 25.09.2026, the petitioner has illegally transported the 6 units of pebble Stones in his lorry bearing registration No.TN 37 BM 9455 without valid transit permit. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case, moreover he is not in the scene of occurrence. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The learned counsel for the petitioner voluntarily submitted that he undertakes to pay a sum of Rs.50,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any of the welfare scheme without prejudice to his defense.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. He submitted that the petitioner was caught red-handed while illegally transporting a total of 6 units of pebble stones without any valid transit passes or legal documents. However, on instructions, he confirmed that the vehicle and the seized sand have already been secured by the respondent police. He further submitted that if this Court is inclined to grant the relief, the petitioner may be directed to deposit the proposed non-refundable amount to the

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. From the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) and the learned counsel for the petitioner, though, this Court views the offence of theft of natural resources and its exploitation as serious offence, and upon the fond hope that he would mend himself in future and would not come under the adverse notice of the respondent and also considering the fact that the petitioner has no criminal antecedents, this Court is inclined to enlarge him on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Perambalur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
