2.The case of the prosecution is that petitioner, along with the other co-accused, trespassed into the house of the defacto complainant, assaulted the defacto complainant's uncle and caused damage to the articles therein. Hence, the present case was registered.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent and has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is no way connected with the alleged offence. The co-accused have been granted anticipatory bail in Crl.M.P.Nos.1580, 1617, 1721 and 1789 of 2026 by the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Tiruppur, on 24.08.2026, 02.09.2026 and 07.09.2026 respectively. The petitioner is the only bread winner of his family and a law-abiding citizen. He is willing to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and to co-operate with the investigation. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. He submitted that the occurrence took place due to previous enmity. He further submitted that one previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegation, and the fact that the occurrence arose out of a previous dispute, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tiruppur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- each (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:

(a) If the petitioner fails to surrender before the concerned learned Magistrate within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, this order shall stand automatically cancelled;

(b) The sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the application for surety ship (Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019]'. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of identify proofs to ensure their identity;

(c) The petitioner shall report before the respondent Police, daily at 10.30 a.m. until further orders;
