ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 353, 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.46 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.02.2022, while the de facto complainant and his subordinates were on patrol duty during late hours, the accused person obstructed the police officials from discharging their official duties. During a routine vehicle check, the de facto complainant, who is a Sub-Inspector of Police, intercepted a two-wheeler. Upon identifying the rider as the petitioner herein, who is an advocate, a verbal altercation ensued between them. It is further alleged that the petitioner threatened the police officials with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and a false case has been foisted against the petitioner and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution's case and submitted that upon completion of the investigation, the charge sheet was filed and taken on file as C.C. No. 190 of 2022 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate No. I, Tindivanam. He further submitted that the petitioner herein had already been granted anticipatory bail on 13.04.2022 in Crl.M.P. No. 2607 of 2022 subject to certain conditions. As the petitioner failed to comply with the said conditions within the stipulated time, he preferred a petition seeking an extension of time in C.M.P. No. 3550 of 2022 before the learned Sessions Judge, Villupuram. The said petition was allowed on 12.05.2022, whereby the petitioner was directed to surrender before the learned Judicial Magistrate No. I, Tindivanam, within a period of one week from the date of that order. The petitioner did not surrender before the trial court. However, when the respondent police subsequently attempted to serve a summons on the petitioner, it was found that he was not residing at the given address, and consequently, surety action was initiated.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case in their entirety, the gravity and serious nature of the allegations leveled against the petitioner and taking note of the compelling submissions made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) regarding the petitioner's unavailability at the recorded address and the subsequent initiation of surety actions, this Court is of the considered view that this is not a fit case for the exercise of its discretionary power. Consequently, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, and the Original Petition stands dismissed.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
