2. The allegation against the petitioner is that he illegally removed 4 units of vandal sand from a lake using a JCB without obtaining permission from the competent authorities. Hence, the present petition for anticipatory bail.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. The learned counsel for the petitioner voluntarily submitted that he undertakes to pay a sum of Rs.70,000/- as non-refundable deposit to any of the welfare scheme without prejudice to his defence.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Upon instructions, he reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has no previous case.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. From the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) and the learned counsel for the petitioner, though, this Court views the offence of theft of natural resources and its exploitation as serious offence,
