2. The case of the prosecution is that a verbal altercation arose between the petitioner and the de facto complainant, during which the petitioner abused and assaulted him with a wooden log, resulting in injury. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and that the petitioner has sustained only simple injuries and has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution, submitted that the petitioner is a history-sheeter and that there are 2 previous cases against him and strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account the submissions made by both sides and the fact that investigation has almost been completed, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
