ORDER

The petitioners apprehend arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 132, 351(2), 221 and 189(2) of BNS in Crime No.71 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the de facto complainant was performing his official duties at the Airport Police Station, Chennai Airport, the petitioner and others assembled near the entrance of the police station in connection with grievances relating to airport taxi operations. Despite being requested not to obstruct the entrance, the petitioner and others engaged in a verbal altercation with the de facto complainant, thereby obstructing him from discharging his official duties. They further threatened him with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and a false case has been foisted against them and that they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the co-accused had already been granted anticipatory bail in Crl.O.P.No.28944 of 2026. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to either side submissions.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations and the totality of circumstances and also considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also considering the fact that the co-accused had already been granted anticipatory bail this Court is of the firm view that, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required. Hence, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioners on anticipatory bail, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Aalandur on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand only), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:

(d) On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate actions against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners are released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji v. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560];
