2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused A1 under the guise of marrying the de facto complainant had sexual intercourse multiple times and refused to marry her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are the father (A2) and mother(A3) of the accused A1. He further submitted that the petitioners are an innocent person, no way related to this case and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, and taking into account the submissions made by both sides and the fact that the petitioners are the parents of the first accused, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to certain conditions.
