2. The case of the prosecution is that initially there was a love affair between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and thereafter on the pretext of marriage, petitioner had involved in physical relationship with the defacto complainant and thereafter refused to marry her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it is true that there was love affair between the petitioner and the defacto complainant initially, however subsequently, they broke their relationship and thereafter victim girl fell in love with some other boy and that is the reason petitioner part away with the defacto complaiannt. He further undertakes that the petitioner will strictly abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court and will co-operate with the investigation.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent state strongly opposes the grant of bail.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the materials available on records.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 14.09.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to following conditions.
