2. The case of the prosecution is that, owing to previous enmity, the petitioner allegedly attacked the victim with a bladed weapon, causing multiple injuries. It is further allged that, while the police attempted to apprehend him, the petitioner attacked two police personnel with the same weapon and caused injuries to them. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was arrested and remanded in judicial custody since 17.01.2026. He further submitted that the petitioner is innocent and that he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and he is ready to co-operate for investigation.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) strongly opposed the bail petition, submitting that the petitioner attacked the victim with a bladed weapon due to previous enmity and caused multiple injuries. He further submitted that the petitioner also attacked two police personnel with a bladed weapon when they attempted to apprehend him. He also further submitted that the charge sheet is filed and the case is pending in S.C.No.177 of 2026 on the file of the III Additional District and Sessions Judge, Cuddalore at Virudhachalam and the injured has been discharged from the hospital.
