seeks regular bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant aged about 29 years and both are engineering graduate and they were in love and their relationship lasted for six months, during which, they had physical relationship on several occasions However, thereafter petitioner refused to marry her. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further undertakes that the petitioner will strictly abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court and will co-operate with the investigation.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent state strongly opposes the grant of bail.

5. It is seen that, this Court in similar matter has granted bail in Crl.O.P.No.26688 of 2026 dated 08.10.2026. Considering the nature of allegations and the age of the parties and they are grown up and they know the consequences of physical relationship and now one party cannot turn up and make allegations against other. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner, subject to strict
