ORDER

The petitioner, who was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 17.09.2026, for the offences punishable under Sections 465, 468, 420 IPC in Crime No.62 of 2026, registered on the file respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, the petitioner herein along with other accused, on false assurance of getting a allotment of house in the Housing Board obtained a sum of Rs.6,00,000/- from the defacto complainant and also subsequently, issued a forged allotment order of TNHB; that when the said allotment order was found to be a fake document, the defacto complainant demanded the petitioner to return back the money, but the petitioner failed to return back and also cheated the defacto complainant. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that already the respondent police had recovered a sum of Rs.1,75,000/- from the other accused. He further submitted that the petitioner is in judicial custody since 17.09.2026 and the petitioner is also ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and sought for bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent while opposing the bail to the petitioner, reiterated the prosecution case and on instruction submitted that only a sum of Rs.1,75,000/- has been recovered from the other accused and a balance of Rs.3,25,000/- is yet to be recovered; and that the investigation of this case is still pending.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of allegation, the fact that a substantial portion of the amount is yet to be recovered and also the fact that the investigation of this case is pending, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner at this stage.

6. Accordingly, this criminal original petition stands dismissed.
