2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused was found transporting four units of river sand in a tipper lorry. Hence, the present case was registered against the petitioner and others.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner has been incarcerated since 05.10.2026. However, he opposed the grant of bail to the Petitioner.

5. Hearing both sides and perusing the materials on record, this Court takes note of the fact that the vehicle used in the alleged offense has already been secured and the quantity involved is one unit of river sand. Considering the nature of the present offense, the quantum of the seized material, the period of custody undergone by the petitioner, and the stage of the investigation and the fact that the petitioner has three previous cases, this Court is inclined to grant
