2.The allegations against the petitioner is that the petitioner along with other accused illegally transported 754 kgs of gutkha and tobacco products valued at Rs. 6,99,642/- using three vehicles from Bengaluru to Deevattipatti. Hence, the present complaint was registered.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the case of the prosecution and, on instructions, submitted that the petitioner was found in possession of 754 kgs of banned contraband products. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the fact that the petitioner has no previous cases and on the fond hope that he would mend his conduct in future and not come under the adverse notice of the respondent, and further considering the quantity involved in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.
