2.The allegation against the petitioner is that the de-facto complainant had borrowed a loan amount of Rs.50,000/- from the petitioner's mother and had not repaid the same within the prescribed time. The petitioner abused the de-facto complainant's mother for delaying the payment. When the same was questioned by the de-facto complainant, the petitioner and his mother assaulted and kicked the de-facto complainant and caused injuries on his face and chest. He rushed to the Government Hospital, Arakkonam, for treatment. Hence the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that there was money dispute between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that he is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court and he is ready to co-operate for investigation. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and, upon instructions, submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Arakkonam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only), with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
