2. The case of the prosecution is that due to a wordy quarrel, the petitioners abused the de facto complainant in flighty languages and assaulted with stones. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent; that there is a case and counter case and that they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he seeks anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioners have no previous case against them and that the de facto complainant sustained simple injuries. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and also perused the records available.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegations, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, the fact that A5,A6 and A11 have already been remanded, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to certain conditions.
