2. The case of the prosecution is that petitioner is running a company, created fake and forged permit order to transport minerals and sold the same to other for transporting minerals illegally. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. Per contra, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the specific allegation against the petitioner is that he is a computer designer and he is the person who has prepared forged transit permit. She further submitted that the computers involved in the alleged occurrence were already been seized and that the petitioner has been incarcerated since 30.09.2026. Hence, she opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.
