2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant belong to a Scheduled cast and she was working as a nurse and initially there was a love affair between the defacto complainant and the petitioner. It is further alleged that the defacto complainant was subjected to sexual assault by the petitioner several times and later refused to marry her because of her caste and thereafter when the defacto complainant's parents decided to marry the defacto complainant to some other person, petitioner shared the intimate photographs of the defacto complainant to her relatives. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further undertakes that the petitioner will strictly abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court and will co-operate with the investigation.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent state strongly opposes the grant of bail.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the parties and perused the materials available on records.

6. It is seen that, for the very same set of allegations, already FIR has been registered and this is the second FIR. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 09.10.2026, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tiruvannamalai, and on further conditions that:

[a] the sureties shall affix his photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the Application for Surety ship [Judicial Form No.46 annexed to 'The Criminal Rules of Practice, 2019']. The learned Magistrate shall obtain a copy of any one of the identity proofs to ensure his identity;

(b) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30.a.m., until further orders;

[c] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

[d] the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

[e] On breach of any of the aforementioned conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to pass appropriate orders against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the aforementioned conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13 SCC 283];
