2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 5.600 kg of banned tobacco products worth about Rs.16,800/-. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the contraband involved has already been seized by the respondent police, and since the petitioner has been in judicial custody from 23.09.2026, his further custodial interrogation is not required. He added that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner has seven previous cases of a similar nature.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the quantity of the contraband involved, the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, and also the fact that the petitioner has seven previous cases, this Court is
