2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 969 Tapentadol tablets (each containing 100 mg) . Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further undertakes that the petitioner will strictly abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court and will co-operate with the investigation.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent state strongly opposes the grant of bail and also submitted that the petitioner has no previous case.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the quantity of the contraband involved in this case and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and also the fact that the petitioner has no previous case, this Court is inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner, subject to strict conditions to ensure his presence during investigation and trial.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned
