2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner, along with other accused, waylaid the de facto complainant at night, demanded money, threatened him with a knife, robbed Rs. 500/-, and damaged his two-wheeler by pelting stones. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 11.09.2026, and his further custodial interrogation is not required. He added that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation and abide by any stringent conditions imposed by this Court.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor opposed the grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner has four previous cases.

5.Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police, and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of the allegations, and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner from 11.09.2026, this Court is inclined to grant regular bail to the petitioner, subject
