2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner was found in possession of TYDOl -100 MG tablets totally 60 tablets worth about Rs.3,960/-. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case without any basis. It is submitted that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since 31.08.2026 and that the petitioner is ready to cooperate with the investigation. The learned counsel would further contend that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner was found in possession of TYDOl -100 MG tablets totally 60 tablets worth about Rs.3,960/-. However, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side.

6. Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on both sides and taking into account that the petitioner has been in judicial custody since
