2. The case of the prosecution is that on 29.08.2026, based on the secret information received about selling of Methamphetamine, the respondent police went to the spot and found that petitioner along with other accused were found to be in possession of 22 grams of Methamphetamine. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case and that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the Respondent Police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, he opposed for grant of bail to the Petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case; taking note of the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side); considering the totality of the circumstances and considering the period of incarceration of the petitioner and also upon the fact that no previous case is pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain
