2. The case of the prosecution is that on 10.09.2026 the respondent police conducted search, during which the petitioner was found in illegal possession of 200 bottles of Blue Grape Brandy, each containing 90 ml. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent, she has been falsely implicated in this case and He further submitted that the petitioner are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties for their due release and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court and therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police, while reiterating the prosecution case, strongly opposed the grant of anticipatory bail. However, he submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner. He further contended that if the petitioner is enlarged on anticipatory bail, they may abscond and commit similar offences in the future.

5. There are no adverse antecedents against the petitioner, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to him, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory
